ANNUAL ADDRESS
OF THE
BISHOP OF MISSOURI
TO THE
FIFTY-SIXTH CONVENTION.

DEAR BRETHREN OF THE DIOCESE:

Our lives flow on. Hard times, no more than easy times, can stop the steady onflow. The work of the world must be met and done; and not less the work of the Church also. In the Church the Diocese is the family unit; and it is in family reunion we gather to-day. We want to count up and think over work which has been done. We want to lay out and provide for work which is to be done. If, honestly, for some things a glow of pride may be felt, we want to feel it. If, as honestly, for other things a flush of shame should come, we want it to come to do its wholesome work. If things are right, we want to go straight on with a will, cheerily. If things are wrong, we want to halt, and haul matters over and change them, if we can. So what we think and say and do in these three days may be, through the Holy Spirit's guidance and blessing, eminently useful and helpful to the experience of the three hundred days which shall follow.

But, that is not the highest type of Family which thinks only of itself and plans only for itself. And, loving heart-beats, unless systematically choked, will not limit their yearnings of sympathy and co-operation to their own Diocese.

Three Sister Dioceses during the last year have been grievously afflicted in the deaths of their respective Bishops.

Bishop Howe, the sixth Bishop of South Carolina, was one of the most lovable of men. In him rare measures of gentleness and firmness blended. His natural character responded graciously to the requirement laid down in the Office for the Consecration of a Bishop; and his prayers for God's loving help had deepened and strengthened the response: "Be so merciful, that you be not too remiss; so minister discipline, that you forget not mercy; that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear you may receive the never-fading crown of glory." The last two years of his earthly life were visited with extreme bodily weakness. But, in the sweet holiness of a saintly patience, he waited for the Chief Shepherd to appear by His messenger, when he gently gathered his robes about him and went away.

To the funeral services of the Bishops of Indiana and Kansas I was summoned. They had served the Church side by side as Presbyters in Minnesota, and had been for many years closely associated there. And, in their deaths, they were but a little divided. In January, the Bishop of Kansas stood in the snow in the cemetery at Indianapolis, and, with touching tenderness, committed the sacred body of his brother to the earth. In March, his own body lay before us in the rest of death in the library room at Topeka.

Bishop Knickerbacker was intensely practical, energetic, aggressive. But he was wise in his methods, and strong in his powers of patient endurance. The great Missionary Diocese of Indiana, the second largest in the number of souls in the American Church, he reduced to order and aroused to vigor in a remarkable degree.

Bishop Thomas was more of the thoughtful scholar; yet manful and earnest and hard working, with the kindest of hearts, and with a practical tact constantly winning successes along the lines of least resistance.

Both fell, as valiant soldiers like to fall, please God, on the field and in the very harness of active duty.

One honored name is no longer on the roll call of the Clergy of our own Diocese. Rev. Dr. John Gierlow died March 6. Dr. Gierlow was born in Denmark, in a home of honor and rank. He became an officer in the Danish army, and served in the West Indies. When I came to the Diocese he was Rector of Grace, Jefferson City, and active in kindly deeds as the Chaplain of the State penitentiary. He was a man of learning, as his degree of Doctor of Philosophy from a German University testified. Bred a soldier, the soldierly qualities of his character remained true to the last. His fidelity to duty could always be counted on. He died at seventy-five, and the last years of his life brought physical disability and straitness of means of living. But, throughout, he showed himself the soldier, carrying himself sturdily erect, and uncomplainingly submitting to the directions of God's providence.

Both the Wardens of Trinity Church, Hannibal, Gilchrist Porter and George W. Storrs, have died during the year. Indeed, they died within a few hours of each other. Men true and godly they were. Judge Porter, an octogenarian, had been associated with the Church life of the Diocese for near half a century. In the Journal of the Convention of 1858 he appears as one of the lay delegates from Hannibal, and almost constantly ever since his honored name is recorded in the Diocesan annals.

As the days have gone on faithful ones have fallen asleep in many a peaceful home of our scattered Parishes. Among them may be mentioned Mrs. Trevor, wife of the Warden of the Church of the Good Shepherd, St. Louis. In loving earnestness and untiring devotion she was a type of the noble women whose zeal contributes largely to keeping this Diocese and its Parishes hopefully and vigorously alive.

For us in the Diocese, left a little longer to do our work in the Church Militant, the outlook is of a mingled warp of good and ill together.

The Confirmations are only 473, less by 37 than the number of a year ago. Looking at the list it is observed that the falling off is in the Parishes of St. Louis rather than in those outside; no less than fourteen city Parishes reporting each a smaller number of confirmees than last year. Can it be that in the cities, which are the strategic centres of the campaign work for the Blessed Master, the world's business and the world's pleasures so engross attention as to cause men and women to forget the Christian obligations resting upon themselves and their children? There are in the Diocese 5,888 Communicants. According to an old rule that the confirmees ought to be one-tenth of the Communicants, our number this year should be 588 instead of 473. Yet I do not wish to urge the matter of numbers unduly. This law of the tenth is no spiritual law. I well know that the good and godly condition of a Parish is not accurately rated by the large class confirmed. As I also know that it is every way better to present a small, but earnest and well-prepared, class, than one large and careless. And still further I know that differing natural circumstances in different Parishes often account for the few presenting themselves for confirmation. Only, let us of the clergy, in the fast passing days of our earthly service, be watchful and helpful in bringing all the fellow sinners whom we wisely can to an open confession of the Blessed Master as their merciful Lord and Savior.

Again, we have now only forty Clergymen actively at work in the Diocese, where last year we had forty-six. If the captains of the host be withdrawn, how can it fare well with the battling? Cape Girardeau, Iron-ton, Jefferson City, Macon, Moberly, and St. Mark's, St. Louis, are vacant. But Macon and Moberly have already called Pastors to fill the vacancies, and my earnest hope is that the other Parishes will do the same ere long. None of the vacant places have given up their Sunday Schools or their Parish life, or their payments of assessments, or their gifts for Missions. Indeed, I am constrained to stop and invite a little of the glow of honest pride to come in right here.

I ask you to look over the two lists of the Treasurers of the Diocese and of Diocesan Missions in The Church News of April. In the one list you shall find only one delinquent Parish of all the fifty-four. And the amount delinquent is only $6.45 in a total of $6,000.00. And that is for Diocesan assessments! Assessments,—which seem to possess in themselves natural powers for rousing up all sorts of recalcitrating objections. Only $6.45 in $6,000.00! And in the matter of Church taxes! Can you ask for a much cleaner balance sheet than that? And where will you turn to find a better record than that? Is there any harm in indulging in a bit of hearty pride over such a showing?

The pledges for Diocesan Missions are in almost as good a shape. Only two are delinquent out of forty-eight made. Pledges and promises for Missionary help cheer the heart greatly. Such pledges and promises met and paid after the fashion exemplified in our list give solid, practical satisfaction, as does almost nothing else. Of the revolving wheels of the Diocese of Missouri steadiness may, I think, be predicated. Jerks and starts and spasms are not much in evidence. The knowledge that sums assessed and promised are sure to be paid is a big element of that steadiness.

Is it any harm to court the glow of pride a little longer? Turn to our field of Domestic and Foreign Missions. When turning it is not for me to forget that I was a Missionary therein for twenty years. The memory is filled with grateful recollections of how I was stood by all that time. Now that I have withdrawn from that field to Missouri, it rejoices my heart that Missouri stands by the field as making amends for my desertion. For the year ending September 1, 1894—I quote from the official report published—the Board of Managers of Domestic and Foreign Missions acknowledge $2,173.06 given by Missouri. Every one of our fifty-four Parishes except six gave. And of our fifty-three Dioceses only nineteen gave more than Missouri. These were the five of New York State, the three of Pennsylvania, the two of New Jersey, three of New England—Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, two of the South—Maryland and Georgia, and four of the West—Chicago, Michigan, Minnesota and Southern Ohio. I seek not to cultivate vain pride. I will not dwell on the fact that in the fifty-three Dioceses Missouri stands twentieth in giving to Domestic and Foreign Missions.

But I do want to enjoy some of the warm glow of an honest and righteous pride. Pride, that the Diocese over which God's Providence and your partiality have made me overseer is not a selfish family of that sort which disdains to take other families into its thought, and is content to spend and be spent in care of its own food and its own clothes and its own growth. Pride, that our Parishes, though pushed hard in these times, and even pinched, do not chillingly quote, "we are poor and in debt ourselves;" "we need every penny for our own support;" "we are sorry but we cannot help outside objects." Along the lines indicated by such quoting the Gospel could never have gotten beyond the Parishes of Judea, Samaria and Galilee. Pride, that our people brush away the fallacy about being "just before you are generous;" realizing that to be just a Christian must as earnestly pay at his debt to God for Missions as at his debt to the man who holds his note, so long as he cannot pay out both of them in full; and that our people feel that to live for the best and grow the fastest at home they must think of and pray for and give to many and many a worthy object presented to them of God, though away from home.

And now, while in the mood for pride of the right sort, we may give heed to some other things. There have been given this year for Diocesan Missions, $4,080.00. For current expenses of St. Stephen's Mission by the Woman's Auxiliary, $1,000.00. For other purposes by the Woman's Auxiliary, $2,323.30. For the "Bishop's Purse," $4,262.72. The Sunday School children, blessings on their generous faithfulness, have given $1,000.00 for the "Missionary Host," and $1,174.08 in Lenten offerings for Missions. Counting the last named sum as practically a part of the $2,173.06, we have a total of $14,839.08, given for Missionary purposes of some sort. And this besides all given for St. Luke's Hospital, and the Orphans' Home, and Sister Eliza, and St. Stephen's Building Fund, etc., etc. No one of us wants to claim that it is all we ought to give. But we may be permitted to "thank God and take courage" that we are not altogether forgetting the duty He imposes and the promise of blessing He extends to those who, believing in Him, seek to promote the precious Missionary cause.

There are some things which are noiseless in action but mightily beneficent. The dew is a thing of that kind. And our "Missionary Host" is like the dew. Quietly for three hundred and sixty-four days of the year fall its refreshing activities of interest and prayer and gifts. Only one day—that comes next Sunday—it breaks out into noise of hands and feet, with banners and smiles and songs and greetings, in Music Hall. Come and see it next Sunday. All the other days, guided and stimulated by its indefatigable President and earnest officers, it is steadily doing the valuable work of which this field day lets out a little of the story. Its money placed in the Bishop's hands as a reserve fund for Missions spreads untold blessings of distribution once and again.

There are other things which, without being much of forces themselves, are valuable conservers and regulators of force. Lubricating oil is that kind of a thing. And the "Bishop's Purse" is like lubricating oil. The generous confidence which entrusts to the chief engineer of the Diocese the sum of more than $4,000.00 per year to relieve hot boxes and to smooth creaking machinery is cordially appreciated and highly valued.

There are still other things which reach great power by the accumulation of littles. The avalanche is a thing of that sort. And the Woman's Auxiliary is like an avalanche. Just now the Missouri Branch of it is massing the snow flakes in this Diocese by seeking for the "United Offering" little and universal gifts from the women of the Church—twenty-five cents from each and everyone—towards the $50,000.00 or $60,000.00 which the Auxiliary of the American Church hopes in October next, at the General Convention in Minneapolis, to lay on the altar towards the endowment of a Missionary bishopric.

Did I say the outlook upon our Diocesan family life was a mingled yarn of good and ill together? Surely the good is the larger part of the woof. I am glad to tell, you will be gratified to know, some of the grounds for this comfortable assurance. Look, then, with me. Up in the northeast corner of the State is the little Parish of Canton. A Church was built there years ago under the guidance of that builder of many churches and indefatigable Pastor, Rev. Mr. Scheetz. Not since I have been Bishop of Missouri has it had a resident Minister. Some faithful women have kept up the Sunday School. This last year the men of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, of Keokuk, Iowa, have visited it and held lay services every Sunday. Interest has been aroused and growth promoted which are most cheering. Speaking of men of the Brotherhood reminds me how members of their Cathedral Chapter have done noble Christian work in visiting the sick and holding regular religious services in the City Hospital, a hitherto greatly neglected field; and, also, that the young men of Trinity Church, St. Charles, have given care to their Sunday School and contributed vigor to the Parish in a manner deserving of hearty commendation. In the sturdy country Parish of Monroe, the beautiful Church is enriched by a number of new memorial windows. At Hannibal you shall find a large guild room added to the Church, and paid for, and already the centre of important Parish activities; and, also, that this aroused and improving Parish is further planning to decorate its Church. On inquiry you will learn that in a month Hannibal is to celebrate the jubilee year of her parochial existence. Turn next to the Southeast, and Rolla will be found completing a handsome new Rectory for its efficient Pastor. In Pike Co., Louisiana and Prairieville have never, in my day, been more full of life and activity. In Mexico growth is marked and claims the watchful care of the much valued Pastor; and the people are not willing to lend him and a fourth of his time any longer to Montgomery. In Columbia the influence of the Church steadily broadens and deepens, and at the State University one of our St. Louis Clergymen was welcomed to serve for a season as Chaplain, and made his term of service most useful and edifying. At Portland the young men in charge of St. Mark's School for boys are building it up into goodly proportions; and the Rev. Mr. Alleyne is giving excellent pastoral care to the surrounding population. Ferguson is organizing itself into a Parish. It has always manifested a manly spirit of self-helpfulness. It now seems entering on a vigorous, healthy movement forward and upward. Old Orchard has enlarged its Rectory; and Kirkwood has reseeded its Church. In St. Louis every Parish and Mission except one is well manned and active in its life. Mt. Calvary seemed stunned by the loss of its old Rector who had been at its head for nearly all its life. But it is reviving conspicuously, and is already busied in putting its Chapel on Grand avenue into decent and usable condition. St. Andrew's and the Church of the Redeemer—our three-year-old infants of Parishes—are in sturdy and satisfactory condition. St. John's, spite of constant losses of helpful parishioners by removal, is filled with a spirit of zeal and enthusiasm which it is delightful to witness. Grace is out of debt, and counts as almost no other Parish, in its militant hosts, bands of loyal young men and young women; and is hopefully looking forward to a new Church building. St. Augustine's has paid off a large portion of the debt incurred in building, and is filled with a wholesome ambition which augurs well for the future. St. Paul's is in line for the march forward, and gives good ground for our hearty wishing to her of peace and prosperity. St. James', under the training of Mr. Simmons and Mr. Duckworth, is developing as an athlete and getting ready to run a race such as it never entered into the lists for before. Holy Communion, with its new organ and porches and decoration, though suffering from removals like St. John's, must be counted in the line of progress. For St. George's this is the jubilee year. We tender to her Rector and people our congratulations. She stands strong in the strength of her maturity, and has been growing stronger during the year over which we are casting our outlook. At the Cathedral, the beautiful "Mary E. Bofinger Memorial Chapel" has been built, and the loving memory of the dead and holy helpfulness to the living are united and enshrined in it. At St. Stephen's, spite of the fact that we have not been able to see our way to put up a suitable housing, steady work of the best kind has gone on in the old stores which we are obliged to use; and standards of righteous and clean living, and beacons of faith and hope are set up and maintained in the midst of a community sadly needing them and greatly benefited by them. Besides all this, the Orphans' Home has enlarged itself by a suitable infirmary; St. Luke's Hospital has gone on caring for the sick, and graduating eleven trained nurses from its excellent school; and in "Bishop Robertson Hall" the Sisters have quietly, patiently and lovingly led the girls entrusted to them along the true paths of sound education and Christian preparation for life.

Is not my contention a sound one that more good than ill is mingled in the yarn? Nor am I yet quite through with showing the bright side. Two women of the Diocese have generously kept up the dues necessary to insure for two clergymen membership in the "Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society," and one of these clergymen being now sixty years of age, and having been a member for five years, is drawing his regular annuity. And in the will of the late George H. Gill, of Kirkwood, of blessed memory, a legacy was left for the purpose of insuring the lives of Clergymen. The proceeds, $1,158.30, are in my hands. By the terms of the will only the income can be used for the purpose indicated. The amount is invested. So soon as the income reaches me there will be somewhat to be applied to the benefit of a Clergyman or two of the Diocese.

An observation or two to the Clergy may be pardoned.

Am I unduly persistent, Brethren, if I entreat you to be punctual and regular and reliable in your hours of public service? We are public servants. I esteem it a violation of good manners, and indeed of good morals, for us to be careless and tardy and dilatory in the discharge of our engagements with the public. To begin our services in Church at the exact minute when they are due is the wise and right course for us to pursue. And where any of you, as is the Bishop's case, have two or three stations to serve for which you have regular appointments, I beg you to be painstakingly careful to be accurately and unfailingly on hand to meet those appointments. A playing fast and loose with appointments gives to a Clergyman the worst sort of a practical reputation. I picture to myself how the talk might go around: "The Bishop is to be here on Sunday." "O, is he? Perhaps so. He sometimes forgets and he often changes. Perhaps he'll be here, and perhaps he won't. You can't count on him. He has a knack of disappointing folks." Bishop or Pastor, that's the way of the talk about him, if he be so unwise as to play fast and loose with his word and engagements.

Do not deem it puerile or unimportant to be minutely loyal to the Prayer Book and its directions. In the long run the Church wins more of substantial benefit from our unswerving obedience to her than from immediate gains seemingly secured by our wilful practisings of unauthorized experiments. At a Sunday evening service in my presence the Clergyman passed from the Sentences to the Lord's Prayer, omitting the Confession and Absolution. At another service of regular Evening Prayer, to be followed by Confirmation, the Clergyman read only one Lesson. Where did these Clergymen get the right to do such things? They are officers under law. The law is that of the rubrics. That law did not allow the omission of the Confession on the evening of the Lord's Day, or the cutting off in a regular service of the Old Testament Lesson. Moreover, besides the fault of disobedience, and the bad habit of unsteadiness engendered, is this an age or time in which the confession of sins and the reading of Holy Scripture are overdone? I feel so strongly that the Prayer Book is the anchor of great value in the winds that blow and the storms that drive in the domain of theological differences, that I am anxious for all to take pains to submit themselves to its authority and its simplicity.

I take occasion to call attention to Title I., Canon 18, § iii, [2], of the General Digest. "The Alms and Contributions at the Administration of the Holy Communion shall be deposited with the Minister of the Parish, or with such Church officer as shall be appointed by him, to be applied by the Minister, or under his superintendence, to such pious and charitable uses as shall by him be thought fit."

Will the laity be so good as to bear this Canon in mind? The Communion Alms belong to the Clergyman. Not for him to add to his salary; but for him to use for the poor; for books and tracts; or for any pious and charitable purposes which he may desire. Where a Clergyman has charge of two or three stations, and no provision is made for his traveling expenses, I have been accustomed to say to him, "Take your necessary traveling expenses out of your Communion Alms."

On the other hand, may I ask the Clergy to give thoughtful consideration to these three suggestions: 1. In these days of multiplied Administrations of the Holy Communion you may not equitably claim your "Communion Alms" under the Canon oftener than once a month. 2. If your Vestry or Committee are struggling to meet current expenses and are pressed with scant means for doing so, do not hesitate to give from your fund, unless urgent claims of the poor have exhausted it, to help them out. 3. Be careful to keep a strictly accurate account of your "Communion Alms." Put down every penny that comes in and that goes out. And you will be a wise man, even though it be your own fund and the Vestry have naught to do with it, to report fully and regularly at Vestry meeting or Committee meeting the amount you have received and for what purposes it has been expended, without necessarily going into minute details.

I was born in the country, and spent the years of earlier manhood a wandering Missionary in sparsely settled regions. To such an one the evangelization of cities presents itself as a new and perplexing problem. In fact, the management of cities is the economic problem of the age. In America, in 1840, only eight per cent of the population lived in cities of over 8,000 inhabitants. In 1890, spite of the rapid settling up of the broad acres of the Far West, it is found that thirteen per cent are in cities of over 50,000. Readiness of transportation, conspicuousness of opportunity, attractiveness of recreations and rewards, gregariousness, the inability of many through ignorance and poverty to get away from their crowded environment, and the desire of not a few to get on by trickery and imposture, rather than by honesty and industry, contribute to this disproportionate growth of urban communities. More and more what the nation does and is, depends on what the cities are and do. A thoughtful person realizes—and one needs not a Bryce in his “American Commonwealth” to emphasize it—that the condition in which our cities find themselves and keep themselves is the strong key in the big lock of the nation’s greatness or weakness. This Church of ours wants to be American through and through. She will not patiently hear herself charged with an itching to be something else. And I feel quite sure that, if you will show her the how and when and where, she will ask to be counted in for the effort to hold the cities, and so the nation, to what is sweet and strong.

Here God’s providence places us in one of the greatest cities of our land. As its citizens we are charged with weighty responsibility. I would not willingly believe that any of us will turn our backs on honest efforts to do our citizen’s duty. Then what shall the Church do? You can understand, I think, how the question bewilders my head and presses on my heart. Men of this city run to and fro, and get gain, and make growth, and mass wealth, and build and fortify castles as mile stones of material progress. God bless them all, if they get and build in honesty and out from righteousness in love and fear of Him! It is—it may be if referred to Him and blessed of Him—good and glorious work. But is God’s work in the Church and for souls to be counted out? If it be, who shall deny that in the long run the material betterments are a mere vanity of vanities? Trade and business and building and growth and wealth should go along with education and art and culture and hospitals and orphanages and Churches and sacraments and Missions, if they are to be blest of God, and real helps and blessings to the nobler part of us and the highest good of the nation.

Now Churchmen seem to me to remove from down town to the West End; and then to think themselves only concerned to keep the West End sweet and strong, and to discharge themselves without hesitation from a sense of responsibility to the whole city. Even in the West End we have not Churches and ministers enough, I know, for the work of calling men off from the slavery of mammon to a service of love and reverence of Almighty God. The deserted region of the East of the city, how shall it be evangelized? I know of no practical way but for men and women to take willingly upon themselves the burden of responsibility for the whole city, and not merely for a chosen part of it. Gladness and thanksgiving are in my heart because $1,500.00 have been given for Sister Eliza's work, and $2,600.00 for St. Stephen's. But when one thinks of the thousands of spiritually neglected souls in the midst of whom Sister Eliza and the Rev. Mr. Tuckerman respectively live, one grieves that the stinted and precarious support of the Sister's labors is not generously enlarged; and that St. Stephen's Mission must be still housed in the unsuitable, ill ventilated and inconvenient old stores which it has so long been obliged to occupy.

Dear Brethren, Churchmen and Churchwomen, paying pew rents and subscriptions for Parish expenses is right and laudable. So honest business foundations are provided for institutional life. To stand by your own pastor is paramount duty. Do so, faithfully, sturdily, generously. But, may I not beg you to bethink yourselves, that you have not done all of duty, nor shown yourself a true and wise American, nor challenged all of God's blessings on your head, if you forget that the whole city, not a parochial part of it, and the whole nation, and indeed the whole heathen world, demand your missionary thought and interest and sympathy and gifts.

These be the thoughts which trouble my head and press my heart. But they do not sorely vex. For I feel quite sure that the people of the Diocese of Missouri will not faithlessly turn their backs on Christian duty; nor will they selfishly seat themselves down to enjoy exclusive privileges. And "Jehovah-jireh," "The Lord will provide," is a steady and cheering motto.

"The world is wide
In time and tide,
And God is guide,
Then, do not hurry.

That man is blest
Who does his best
And leaves the rest,
Then, do not worry."

All had regretted to say good-by to him. But in a spirit of earnestness which he had helped to deepen, they have moved forward at once and actively, towards the procuring of a new Pastor. While the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is active and busy, another society called the "Four S's," (society for supporting the Sunday School), has been started to enlist the interest and efforts of the young women. And these latter, in thinking about the Sunday School, and caring for the Sunday School, and visiting the regular scholars, and gathering in new scholars, and raising funds for necessary papers and books, are accomplishing most excellent results.

Your Committee beg leave to report that they have examined the following accounts, viz.: Treasurer of the Diocese, Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, Theological Education Fund and the Permanent Fund for the Support of the Episcopate. We find them correct, with vouchers for all disbursements and the securities as stated in the Treasurer's reports. The Bishop reported holding in trust $1,158.30, proceeds of a legacy of the late Geo. H. Gill, of Kirkwood, the income to be used for the insuring of clergyman's lives; also an amount in hand of $227.35 towards the building of a church for Epiphany Mission, St. Louis. Both sums are invested in certificates of deposit in the Boatman's Bank, St. Louis. We append a summary of the several accounts, viz.:

Your Committee have considered the resolution referred to us in relation to an appropriation of one hundred ($100) dollars for the purchase of books for the Diocesan Library, and feel compelled to report against the allowance, it being just possible to make an assessment equal to the ordinary expenses, which have to be provided for.

The expenses of the Diocese for the ensuing year will approximate six thousand ($6,000) dollars, and we would offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That an equitable assessment be made upon the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese for a sum not exceeding six thousand ($6,000) dollars.

Report of the Secretary of the Diocesan Missionary Board.

The Board organized on the 17th of June, 1894, by electing Mr. D. F. Leavitt, Treasurer, and Mr. F. J. McMaster, Secretary, for the ensuing year.

The Treasurer reported at this date that he, as Treasurer of the Laymen Co-Operating Missionary Society, had received from the executor of the estate of the late Mr. George H. Gill the amount which the estate was able to pay of the legacy left by Mr. Gill to the Society, which amount was $2,316.00.

At this meeting the appointment by the Bishop of Rev. J. A. Dooris to do special Missionary work under his direction was approved.

The Domestic Board of Missions granted the Diocese an appropriation of $1,000 for the Missionary year beginning September 1, 1894, and the following Missionaries have been nominated by the Bishop, and their nomination approved by the Board, to receive the same:

The following resignations have been received and accepted since last Convention:

Rev. P. W. Fauntleroy.....	St. James', St. Louis	Oct. 1, 1894
Rev. R. A. Holland, Jr.....	St. Paul's, St. Louis	Oct. 15, 1894
Rev. Joseph Wayne.....	Christ, Moberly	Nov. 1, 1894
Rev. S. E. Arthur.....	Christ, Cape Girardeau	Dec. 1, 1894
Rev. C. G. Davis.....	Grace, Jefferson City	March 1, 1895
Rev. T. F. C. James.....	St. Paul's, Ironton	March 1, 1895

The following Missions are reported vacant:

Afton, Canton, Cape Girardeau, Cuba, Ironton, Jefferson City, Kirksville, La Plata, Moberly and Montgomery.

The Board reports that it has changed the rule relating to a quorum of the Board, by requiring, that of the eight members necessary to constitute a quorum, not less than two shall be clergymen, and two laymen. The former rule required four of each order.

The Board further reports that being uncertain as to what was the proper interpretation of the Canons, respecting its duties and powers, it undertook to ascertain the same, and after a careful examination of the Canons, declared the following to be its interpretation of their meaning regarding these two subjects:

1. The Board has the management of all Missionary operations conducted in and through all organized Missions.

2. The Board has the management of all Missionary operations conducted in and through all unorganized Missions, except such as are "established" in connection with the work of a "Parish," in accordance with the provisions of Canon 10.

3. The Board has power to locate and organize Missions under and subject to the regulations of Canons 8 and 10; to purchase ground and erect Mission buildings thereon, provided it incurs no indebtedness therefor, and is not restrained by the veto of the Bishop and Standing Committee.

4. The Board has power to assist organized Missions in purchasing ground and erecting buildings thereon, provided it incurs no indebtedness therefor, and is not restrained by the veto of the Bishop and Standing Committee.

5. The Board has the power to invite subscriptions and collect money for the purpose of distributing the same for the support of Missionaries, and for Mission purposes of the Diocese, and also for the purpose of purchasing ground and erecting buildings thereon for those Missions which the Board may locate and organize, and also for the purpose of assisting organized Missions in the purchase of ground and the erection of buildings thereon.

6. The Board has the approval of any appointment of an Archdeacon made by the Bishop, and the right to instruct him when approved as to the performance of his duties, under the direction of the Bishop in advancing the cause of Missions, supervising Mission work and extending the church in the Diocese.

Since the last Convention, the Board has taken no active steps toward raising money for the building of St. Stephen's Mission House, or the building of the same, further than the appointing of a committee on plans and estimates to confer with Rev. Mr. Tuckerman and with two or more competent architects, in the preparation of such plans and specifications, and to obtain bids of responsible builders upon the same, the bids to be limited to $25,000, including all heating apparatus and fixtures.

For several years past the Domestic Board has appropriated to this Diocese $1,000 yearly for Missionary purposes. It is a fact, doubtless known to most of the members of the Convention, that the Domestic Board is at present $100,000 behind, and we have no assurance whatever that we will be favored with the appropriations formerly received from it, but on the contrary the chances seem to be against such a grant.

If this $1,000 is not granted this year, to keep our Missionaries who are in the field at work in their several stations, will require at least $5,300 to be pledged for Diocesan Missions at this Convention, and to fill the vacant Missions will require an additional sum of $600, or $5,900 in all.

If, on the other hand, we are so fortunate as to receive any appropriation whatever from the Domestic Board, then the figures given can be reduced by whatever sum this appropriation may be.

The Board most respectfully submits this condition of affairs for your careful consideration and action.

Respectfully,

F. J. McMASTER,
Secretary.

Report of Missouri Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

To the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, D. D., Bishop of Missouri:

It is with humble thankfulness that we report to you that in spite of the retrenchment felt in all quarters in the past year we have been able not only to meet all our pledges, but to bring the work up very nearly to what it was last year, when several special gifts increased our treasury exceedingly.

We have raised the $1,000 pledged for St. Stephen's current expenses, one-tenth of it having been raised by the women of the Auxiliary in the Mission itself. One hundred and fifteen dollars was raised for Sister Eliza to meet the demands upon the Church Mission House during the summer. Fifty dollars was sent to New York towards the Deaconess' Home in China; one hundred dollars to Miss Carter for her Indian work; the same amount to Bishop Hare for Niobrara, and also to Bishop Atwill for work in West Missouri. All this is apart from our regular Diocesan pledges and scholarships.

New branches have been formed in Louisiana, Prairieville and Clarksville, and in the Girls' Friendly Society. A branch of the Church Periodical Club has been formed, and seventy-two papers and magazines are now sent regularly to give the same pleasure in other households that the subscribers have enjoyed. A Missionary Reference Library has been begun, and through the courtesy of the Cathedral Chapter and the Diocesan Librarian, now has a shelf in the Diocesan Library. It is an humble beginning of what may in time be a valuable adjunct to the work.

Membership cards have been given out, through the Parish Secretaries, to the women who in any way contribute to the Auxiliary work by their prayers, labors or gifts. About 500 have been distributed.

Our Quiet Day was conducted by the Rev. Gustavus Tuckerman, and one of the Mission's classes by the Rev. Carroll M. Davis, and addresses made at meetings by Bishop Hare, Bishop Tuttle and Mrs. Ward, the President of the Chicago Auxiliary.

The special work set before us is the United Offering, to be made at the triennial meeting in Minneapolis next October. We have about $550 now towards the $1,000 some of us have been ambitious enough to hope would be Missouri's share in the great gift. Probably not over 200 have contributed so far, and the largest gift has been one of $25. The responsibility lies with each member of the Auxiliary to see that every woman whom she can reach is given the privilege of helping to make this gift what we have said it should be, "A united offering from the women of the church."

The report of the work is as follows:

Report of Special Committee on Sunday Schools.

Despite all the criticism which the Sunday School has to undergo, and the fault-finding to which it is subjected, still there is no doubt that on the whole it is one of the most, if not quite the most, encouraging department of Church work in the Diocese. The Sunday School will interest persons who think or care little for any other kind of Church work, for the simple reason that every one with a heart inside of him is interested in children. And the fresh, exuberant life of young people gives a certain persistent vitality to any enterprise. In many of our weakest Missions the one thing that keeps the breath of life in them is the Sunday School, and when a Mission dies, the last thing to expire is the Sunday School. While the Sunday School seems to get along without much official encouragement from the Convention, still its efficiency and influence would doubtlessly be very much increased if the Convention would take direct systematic control in securing uniformity of methods, and a closer union of all the different schools in corporate sympathy.

We can take time only for the slightest sketch of the present condition of the Sunday School work, full details of which will be found in the Convention Journals and the reports to the Missionary Host. The last report we have, that of the Convention Journal of 1894, gives the number of scholars in the Diocese, 4,063. The number in 1890, immediately after the division of the Diocese, was 3,604. The increase has been thirteen per cent, about the same as the increase of communicants. In 1893 the increase was six per cent, and in 1894 only two per cent. The marked discrepancy is probably the result of imperfect reports. The average per cent of increase per year has been four, which would make the present number of scholars 4,225.

In the matter of instruction books and hymnals we give the following results: Four or five of the schools have failed to report; six schools use the Joint Diocesan Lessons, and four Whittaker's Leaflets on these Lessons; four use the Bishop Doane Manuals, two the Young Churchman Leaflets, two the Church Catechism only, one the Church Catechism and Prayer Book only, one Blakeslee's Graded Lessons, and one Gwynne's Manual. One school reports that it uses a "Variety," and in one the Rector writes his own questions.

In the way of hymnals, ten have the Church Hymnal only, six Hutchins' Sunday School Hymnal, two the Gospel Hymns, one the Chorister, one the Church Porch Hymnal, and one Sheet Music, the hymnal not mentioned.

As to the service for opening and closing the schools, with few exceptions, mostly in the country schools, a service exclusively from the Prayer Book is used.

Probably as things now are, there is no means by which absolute uniformity in the matter of instruction books could be secured, and it is doubtful if it would be desirable.

There is, however, an underlying and fundamental principle which, if accepted and understood by all, would settle most of the questions that come up in the conduct of the Sunday School, namely: That the Sunday School is not a separate institution from the Church, but an integral part of the Church, and therefore must be subject to the same authority as the worship of the Church. Under this principle, then, we take the liberty to recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

First. Resolved, That the staple and basis of all instruction be the Catechism and the Christian Year of the Church.

In this we do not ignore the Holy Scriptures, but claim that a full knowledge of the Catechism and the Christian Year is the key to the right understanding of the Bible, and prepares the young mind clearly to grasp and understand in its maturity the Word of God in its application to the conduct and cultivation of the Christian life.

Second. Resolved, That no service books whatever be used except the Book of Common Prayer and the Church Hymnal.

The invincible argument for this is the simple fact that the Sunday School being an integral part of the Church, no one has a right to use an individual, unauthorized compilation in the service of the Sunday School, no more than he has in the worship of the Church. And the practical argument is that our children should be trained in the Prayer Book service in order to become intelligent worshippers in the Church.

APPENDIX No. 13.

Report of the Committee on Christian Education.

The Diocese of Missouri has no Diocesan school. There are, however, in the Diocese two schools, Bishop Robertson Hall and St. Mark's School, which are thoroughly churchly in their character and methods of Christian training. Bishop Robertson Hall, formerly known as the School of the Good Shepherd, was established twenty-one years ago by the Sisters of the Good Shepherd. During the current year there have been enrolled eighty-nine pupils; of this number twenty-six are members of the household in the boarding department, and sixty-three are day scholars. The attendance and enrollment, which are nearly up to the present accommodations of the school, indicate marked prosperity, considering the financial depression, but in a normal condition of monetary affairs, would be nothing unusual. The corps of teachers is eleven in number, and this does not include the Bishop and the Chaplain, Rev. Mr. Green, who give regular instruction in Church history and Christian morals, in addition to what is provided for in the course of study and life in the school. The purpose of the school is to prepare girls for an intelligent Christian womanhood, to produce an intellectual character meet for the necessary duties of social life, and a moral and spiritual character that will grace life on all its sides and in its profounder meanings. The course of study comprises everything needed to meet the demands of a cultivated woman of the present time, and lays a solid foundation for a higher or special education. Your committee feel assured in saying from their own knowledge and from trustworthy testimony that the work of the school is thorough and accurate, not crowding with a distracting variety of subjects after the high pressure system of the public schools, but flexibly adapted to the individual wants and capacities of the pupil. The best evidence of this is the fruits of the school during the twenty-one years of its existence. The sixty-five graduates and the many others whose character has been moulded in the school, are a gracious leaven in the Church in Missouri to-day. Their unshaken loyalty to the Church, the quiet beauty of their good works, their splendid devotion to the best ideals are a singular and blessed power in enriching and elevating the Christian life in our midst.

St. Mark's School, Portland, was established as a private school, and has never asked or received any aid from the Diocese, and yet it is fulfilling the aims and purposes of a Diocesan Church School. The institution was founded in 1891 by Rev. F. E. Alleyne and Mr. J. H. Gill, and opened with one pupil. From the first there has been a steady growth, the total number of scholars during the four years being fifty-four, with thirty now in residence, the full number of the present accommodations of the school. Of this number, twelve are from St. Louis, seven from different parts of the State, and Illinois, Virginia and Spain are represented. At present provision is only made for the younger class of boys from ten to fifteen years of age, though it is intended to enlarge ultimately to the higher grades of a preparatory education. The grounds that your committee have for commending St. Mark's School to the Churchmen of the Diocese are, first, the uniformly favorable testimony of the clergy and patrons of the school who have visited the institution; second, the healthful location of the school, and its absolute seclusion from untoward surroundings and the temptations to which school boys are exposed, combined with home influences and healthful outdoor exercise that gives full freedom to the exuberance of boy nature; and third, a moral and spiritual culture on the lines of good sense going hand in hand with intellectual development. Without martinet rules, confidence between teacher and scholar is acquired, and the boys are managed according to individual character, and governed by bringing out their sense of honor and self-respect. And religion is brought into their daily life in a way that makes it easily become the dominant motive of character. St. Mark's fills an important want in the Church, that is a boarding school where church people may feel safe in sending their children, which furnishes first-rate advantages at an expense within the means of those whose incomes are limited; and the institution has proved its reason to be, and has a clear right to expect the direct interest and substantial encouragement of the Church.

The fact is, Christian people throughout the land have got to take hold more seriously of this whole question of Church and Christian education. There is a growing dissatisfaction on all hands with our public school system, especially on two points; first, that it is a big heartless machine that either turns out automaton boys and girls after the same pattern, or grinds to powder those that fail to fit into the mould. At present it seems a hopeless task to get them out of politics, or to introduce into them the idea that Christian morals is a part of the education of a human being. Therefore, the only resource we have is more attention to Church Parish and private schools.

G. D. B. MILLER, Chairman.

Report of the Chaplain of St. Luke's Hospital.

Aside from the strictly Missionary work of the Diocese, the Orphans' Home and St. Luke's Hospital are the only charities under the special charge of the Church. They both appeal not only to Churchmen, but to all who acknowledge the claims of a suffering humanity. In both cases relief ought to be extended to the orphan and the sick regardless of their religious associations, or their lack of such associations. Their claim is on the broad ground of our blessed Lord's teaching, that our ministry to the wants of our fellows, whether physical or spiritual, is a ministry to Himself, which He has told us He will acknowledge in these precious words, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto Me." And yet there has been in the history of both of these institutions, but especially in that of St. Luke's, a tardiness to help in their work, which is by no means complimentary to our Churchmanship or Christianity. I know there are parochial claims in every congregation, which press upon their several members, and there have been in the past two years financial troubles which have greatly curtailed in many instances the resources of those to whom we have been accustomed to look for help. Still the fact cannot be ignored, that on the part of the several Parishes throughout the Diocese, these, our wards, have been in a great measure forgotten. Next to Diocesan Missions they have a home claim upon us, and ought to enlist our sympathies in a work for our Lord, so plainly marked out for all who profess to love Him.

During the past year there have been no special gifts or bequests to the Hospital. About the same amount of offerings was contributed from the "Hospital Saturday and Sunday Association" as we have been in the habit of receiving, from our annual Sunday collection. There has been received the past year from twenty-three persons connected with the city Parishes, subscriptions to the amount of $475, and from ten persons outside the Church, $80. This certainly is a very small sum when we reflect that the Hospital is a Diocesan Institution and that the extension of its strictly charitable work depends in a good measure upon outside donations; though the endowed beds, now numbering eight, are ever ready to do their ministry of mercy. As I said in my last report, "the Hospital is a great charity in itself, as furnishing a home where the transient sick may be cared for with a comfort and a skill never found in any private residence. As a matter of economy also, whether in a ward or a private room, board, medical care and nursing can be procured at a much less cost, and as a rule, with far more comfort and better attention."

Mrs. Mary Chambers is still the wise and efficient Superintendent; with her heart thoroughly enlisted in the work, and gathering wisdom and zeal with each successive year's experience. "The Training School for Nurses" has been eminently successful the past year. The fourth annual graduating exercises for the class were held in the Memorial Chapel on Friday evening, May 3d, when the Bishop conferred the diplomas of the Institution upon eleven young ladies who had passed all the requisite examinations and devoted the required time to their preparation. They have entered upon a noble work, and are furnished with the means of self-support, which will render them independent, as far as possible, of fickle fortune, or the often times more fickle care of selfish relatives.

Services in St. Luke's Memorial Chapel have been as follows:

Holy Communion—Public Celebrations.....	56
Holy Communion—Private Celebrations.....	3
Ward Services .....	43
Baptism—Infant .....	1
Burial—Adult .....	1

Number of patients during the year, 453. Religious creeds—Churchmen, 88; Roman Catholics, 58; Methodists, 57; Presbyterians, 42; Baptists, 19; Campbellites, 17; Universalists, 1; Unitarians, 3; no religious faith, 125. Free patients, 87; 2,066 days in the Hospital; free surgical operations, 35.

The Rev. K. M. Deane has been acting as Associate Chaplain since last September; and also was elected Chaplain of St. Barnabas' Guild for Trained Nurses, and in both positions has evinced his usual zeal. With his Parochial duties it is by no means a sinecure position.

The Altar Department, as heretofore, has been under the charge of Miss Triplett, with the occasional help of Miss Cousland, or one of the nurses. The time and care involved each week in attention to these duties, is by no means inconsiderable; yet it is always given as a work of love most cheerfully and with unvarying regularity.

Her report of receipts and disbursements of Communion Offerings as kept by her, is here given:

Offerings the last year.....	41 67	$47 34

Since the completion of the Mary E. Bofinger Memorial Chapel, the Holy Communion on Saints' Days has been celebrated there; but there is a weekly celebration every Thursday at 11 A. M. at St. Luke's Chapel, and the doors are open and a welcome extended to each and every Communicant who may choose to avail themselves of the privilege.

Report of Standing Committee on Missions.

Your Committee take pleasure in noting the fact of an increasing interest in this Diocese in the general Missionary work of the Church, and we feel sure it will help us to realize and provide for our own needs, which are continually pressing us onward.

We are glad to note that in our own Diocese an improvement is manifest, and we pray that it may go on.

Still, your Committee would impress upon this Convention the importance of Church extension.

This City of St. Louis and its suburbs are growing with a rapidity which has to be seen to be appreciated, and we cannot impress this too strongly upon you.

The spread of the Church has from time immemorial proceeded from the city to the country. In this it has followed the lines of all social development. The present time is no exception to the rule. Let us strengthen the work in the cities; let us occupy the new territory; let us be wise in our generation. From new Missions and Parishes in the city shall proceed the means, the energies, the enthusiasm which will evangelize the country, so shall both city and country serve with greatest efficiency.

It must be remembered, however, that much of the best life-blood of the city comes from the country. Our work in the country must therefore not be neglected, but be rather increased and extended as opportunity and means may be provided.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Registrar and Librarian.

The Registrar and Librarian submits the following report:

The Library is in the same condition as at the time of my last report. The wise man said: "Of making many books there is no end." Had he seen this day and generation he would have realized the truth of that saying in all its fulness. Yet, in spite of a prolific press, and cheapened books, the Library grows but slowly. Only three volumes were received during the year; two volumes of Josephus, from the late and lamented Miss Nye, and "A Champion of the Cross," being the life of John Henry Hopkins, S. T. D., presented by the Rev. Dr. Ingraham, Rector of Grace Church, St. Louis. The shelves of the Library contain many books that are practically useless, and should be consigned to the lumber room, and room, much needed, made for new books. The Library has been consulted very frequently during the year by the Clergy and theological students, and the great regret of the Librarian is, that many standard theological works asked for, find no place in our collection. It is the hope that generous gifts will in time be made by those liberally disposed, and who value good books for the good that they do.

More room is needed for the proper arrangement of the various Diocesan journals, and it is suggested that the present shelves be extended up to the ceiling in the Chapter room.

The Registrar suggests and recommends that Rectors of Parishes prepare and file with him histories of their respective Parishes. He is unaware of any in existence, except those of Christ Church Cathedral and the Church of the Holy Communion. The future history of the life and doings of the Church in Missouri, will be more easily and satisfactorily written, if such data, as is suggested, be found in the files of the Registrar, prepared by those whose record of work it shows. The Registrar proposes to supplement this recommendation by personal communication with the various Rectors.

There remains a balance of $10.25 for the incidentals of this office.

Respectfully submitted,

KENNETH M. DEANE,

Report of the Secretary of the Orphans' Home.

EASTER TUESDAY, April 16, 1895.

As here and there in a landscape certain features impress the eye, so, in reviewing the history of our past year, a few events stand out with greater prominence.

Our Board of Managers has been diminished by the loss of two earnest members, to whose memory we bring our loving and appreciative tribute.

We have lost our Chaplain through a call to a distant Parish; we have at last succeeded in erecting an infirmary, and we have established a kindergarten.

The Rev. B. E. Reed for many years has shepherded our little flock, signing them with the cross in holy baptism and training them in the ways of the Church, from the teaching of the Catechism lisped by baby lips to the preparation of those willing and earnest enough to take upon themselves the vows of confirmation. The incorporation, too, of many of the children in the choir of Mount Calvary, of which he was Rector, has been of undoubted benefit in affording them musical practice and training. The Managers, who, by their unanimous consent, desired to do what little they might to show their regard and appreciation of his valuable services, tendered him a farewell reception at the Home, making use of this opportunity to present him with a neat silver service in token of their friendship and esteem.

He was succeeded by the Rev. S. H. Green, who is faithfully carrying on the work of his predecessor.

The building of an infirmary is an achievement of which we are proud. It has long been a matter very near our hearts. After two successive seasons of epidemic we dared not run the risk of failing to provide for what such an institution as ours may not hope to escape. And we are now not only prepared for taking care of the sick, but we feel that we have also the power of protecting those who are in health from the danger of infection and disease.

For the plans and the careful and painstaking supervision of all details of construction we are under obligations to Mr. Tully, of the firm of Tully & Clark, whose services have been rendered free of charge.

Plans were also furnished by Shepley, Rutan & Coolidge, and the same gratuitous service as that rendered by Mr. Tully was generously tendered by Mr. Shepley. For this kind offer we desire to express our hearty thanks.

For the donating of the hardware in the building, amounting in value to $75, we are indebted to Mr. E. C. Simmons.

Mrs. Theodore Betts has generously furnished a ward in memoriam. The Church of the Holy Communion, together with the J. J. Mitchell family, are kindly furnishing the large ward.

The hall mantelpiece is donated by Mrs. Henry Whitmore in memoriam.

We are promised by the Griswold Society, of St. John's Church, a window-seat in memoriam the Rev. Whiting Griswold.

There is room and opportunity for other memorials.

We have not yet raised the entire amount necessary to defray the cost of the building, but we are confident we have friends who will esteem it a privilege to help us cancel this debt of $3,500.

In the establishment of a kindergarten for the younger children we feel that we are giving them the nearest approach to mothers' training that lies within our power.

For the rest we have moved along the old lines, all of us at times feeling the pressure of duty and responsibility; but we have had no very troublesome anxieties, and no epidemic disease. Our problems have been solved as they presented themselves, and we have had our festival occasions as usual.

There have been occasions for lessons of patriotism and loyalty to the flag; there have been steamboat and park excursions and visits to the Exposition. The good cheer which Thanksgiving brings was provided, and the commemoration of the Christ Child at Christmastide was the gladdest time of all. The last of these occasions was the Eastertide just passed.

We wish to thank our physicians, Drs. Saunders and Chapman, for their unfailing care of the children; our oculist, Dr. Wolfner; Mr. Fetherstone, for his military training; the Fresh Air Mission; the Exposition Association; the Parish Guilds, for assistance in making garments, and our present Chaplain, the Rev. S. H. Green, and the Clergy who have assisted in the services at the Home.

We still retain our Matron. Our teacher is Miss Hough, and her association with the Home at this time makes an agreeable connecting link with the past, recalling, as it does, services rendered in its infancy—for, just fifty-one years ago, her grandmother was elected its presiding officer.

During the year we have received fifty-four children. Six have been adopted, two indentured; two have run away, situations have been obtained for two of the older boys, twenty-eight have been restored to parents and friends, and one is now at the Martha Parsons Hospital for treatment. There is but one death to report, that of an infant, who was ill at the time of its reception into the Home.

There are at present seventy-three children in the Home.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. EDWIN HARRISON,

Secretary.

As Missionary in charge, I did not make out the report last year. The number of communicants given was that of the year previous. But, owing to the financial depression, families have been compelled to move away, and at no time since taking charge of the Parish could I find as many communicants as were reported last year.

I cannot omit to record here my deep obligations for gifts both to myself and family, both in money and clothing, of a most substantial character, from the good women of the Parish; and better than these have been the loving and warm co-operation in which they have helped on the good work of the Parish. There are no discords now seen in the Parish, and everything seems encouraging.

The young men formed into an auxiliary branch of the St. Andrews' Brotherhood over a year ago, without being organized, have done a remarkable work in the building up of the Sunday School and deep interest in the spiritual welfare of the Parish. For the first time in the history of the Parish has it been independent of outside lay help. On the Sundays that I am not present they have kept the Church open, and during Lent services were held on two week nights. They have most certainly purchased to themselves a good degree, and are now asking to be organized as a Chapter of the regular Brotherhood, and hope to be admitted during the coming month. There are only four regular workers.

The Congregation is steadily increasing, and becoming more and more influential.

Time has justified the wisdom of those who selected the location for All Saints'. Besides having a large and increasing number of colored people, who reside in the immediate vicinity of the Church, it is more central and easy of access by the cars from all parts of the city than any house of worship possessed by the colored people in St. Louis. This vantage, while at this point, it must hold for some considerable time.

The debt upon the Church now amounts to $5,000, $4,000 having been paid off by the noble efforts of the Missouri Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. It was thought at the time that work in this direction was stopped, that the rapid appreciation of the property in value for business purposes would enable the proper authorities to dispose of the building at such an advantage as to enable the Congregation to buy or build elsewhere, in a situation equally as favorable, and free from debt. This expectation was not realized. Since then, for the reasons given above, it would seem at the present time that removal from this location would not only be unwise, but absolutely dangerous to the welfare of the work.

Faithfully,

CASSIUS M. C. MASON.

The Rector begs leave to say that whilst the times financially have affected this Parish, as they have done other Parishes elsewhere, yet he is glad to recognize in the whole a progress, an increase in attendance at Services and Communion, and the still prosperous condition of the Sunday School, though surrounded now by various attractions on the part of denominational services. He expresses his grateful appreciation for all co-operation with him in his work. Not the least helpful has been the encouragement he has received from the faithful attendance of some of the children at the regular services appointed for them. We have a Parochial Woman's Auxiliary, Miss Rebekah Parker, President; St. Mary's Guild for Young Women, Miss Pauline Parker, President; a Young Talent Society for Girls, Mrs. A. E. Sutton in charge, and Missionary Treasurer at appointed times. We hope during the coming year to have the men and boys likewise organized and at work. To God be ascribed the thanks and praise for all good work accomplished.

The present Rector, Rev. Philip Williams Fauntleroy, took charge of the Parish in October, 1894. The former Rector, Rev. B. E. Reed, having resigned his charge in June, 1894, the Parish was without a Rector from June, 1894, to October, 1894. The incoming Rector found the Parish in a sadly demoralized condition, the Congregation being badly scattered and depleted. Of the 173 Communicants reported to the last Convention, there were 18 marked off as removed on the list left by the former Rector, leaving the actual number at the time of his resignation 155. To this number add 21 confirmed under former Rector on May 6, 1894, and you have 176; deduct 42 lost by removal, death, etc., up to October, 1894, and you have left 134 as the actual number of Communicants when the present Rector took charge. Add to this 16 added by him, and you have the present number reported to this Convention, 150—the class of 19 presented and confirmed on May 12, 1895, being too late for this report. The Ladies' Sewing Guild should be credited with $261.17 of the Parochial Offerings. Through the noble generosity of a certain churchman we are now repairing Mt. Calvary Chapel on Grand avenue, and expect to hold weekly services there in addition to our regular services in the present church. We all feel encouraged, and hope under God's blessing to be able to report to the next Convention substantial progress all along the line.

At the time of Rev. Mr. Fauntleroy accepting the call to Mt. Calvary Parish, we were progressing slowly but steadily. His withdrawal from us was almost irreparable. He had endeared himself to us by his unselfish and Christian conduct; but God, in His inscrutable goodness and mercy, raised us up another, who has continued the work, so that we can reasonably hope in future success. Under the leadership of our dear Lay Reader, Mr. E. C. Simmons, and his able coadjutor, Mr. E. Duckworth, we have nearly doubled our membership, have received into Holy Communion seventeen new members, and have another class now under instruction, which will be presented when Mr. Duckworth is ordered Deacon on June 2.

I have also held 37 services at the Orphans' Home as Chaplain from July 1, 1894, to March 1, 1895, besides occasional services elsewhere.

A Sewing School has been maintained in the Parish with an average attendance of 90 scholars (110 enrolled), and 7 teachers. This has been kept up for the past two years. A "Mother's Meeting" is also held each Friday afternoon by one of the women of the Parish. There is also a Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

It will be seen that there is a reduction in the number of families, four having gone away to find elsewhere work and the means of living. Some isolated individuals have gone for the same reason. As several of the mines have shut down and employes dismissed, it will be safe to say that the working force in Bevier has been reduced by a fourth, and perhaps a third. Some of the miners who remain with us are finding work for not more than two days in the week. Of course there is but little money here, and times continue very hard; but there is prospect and hope of a good crop in the fall, when we hope, also, that the coal companies may regain their ability to give the miners work and living wages. Then we hope some who have gone from us will return and others come in. The only hopeful thing among us is in our Sunday School and Bible Classes, which are doing well so far as mere numbers go.

There seems to have been no Mission or Church Registry kept heretofore, and the only record of this Mission known to me is the Treasurer's books and a record of two or three committee meetings. It is not thought that a similar omission will hereafter occur, but it is impossible to prepare the kind of report desired in the time required of me.

The resignation of Rev. S. E. Arthur took effect December 1, A. D. 1894, since which time we have been without a Clergyman, and except the visit of the Bishop, February 24, were without Church services, except Sunday School.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Bishop:

I have resided at Kirksville the past year, and have done duty in Millard, in Mexico, Hannibal, Moberly and in Portland, Callaway County, Mo. Have also by desire of the ladies of Trinity Church, this city, acted as Superintendent of the Sunday School, have been twice out of the State to perform duties, and was present at the laying of the corner-stone of the Church just erected at Ottumwa, Ia., and assisted by reading the lesson; was present at the Hannibal Convocation at Louisiana, Mo.

Very truly yours,

CHAS. H. CANFIELD.

Trinity Mission is vacant. All of its indebtedness has by the exertion of the Ladies' Guild been cancelled. They have a Sunday School which has twenty scholars on its roll. The average attendance is fifteen scholars and four teachers. Mrs. Geo. Eckert is the head of the school, and by invitation of the ladies, the Rev. C. H. Canfield, resident Minister, is acting Superintendent. Its collections go for the expense of the school.

A great hindrance to the success of the work is the fact that there is no suitable place for holding services and Sunday School in the part of the city where the work was begun and intended to be carried on. Had it been possible to have kept up the services where they were begun, on the corner of Chouteau avenue and Manchester Road, a very strong Mission or a respectable Parish would be in good working condition here to-day. At present we are holding services on Old Manchester Road in a private house lovingly tendered free of charge, and having the Sunday School meet in Foerstel Court Hall, on Clayton Road, graciously put at our disposal by the owner.

I must here record my deep sense of obligation to the Rev. Mr. Wilkinson, Rector of St. Mark's Church, for many and great favors to the Epiphany Mission, and personally to myself; and, in addition, for his unremitting and faithful labors as Superintendent of the Sunday School, which would otherwise have had to suffer on account of my absence every alternate Sunday. My appointment as Missionary in no way affected his warm interest in the success of the work, and it is owing largely to his labors that the School, under God, has done so well during the past year.

It is due, also, to the efficient Secretary, Mr. Wilucke, a member of another Parish, to testify of his constant and unremitting services as a factor that has contributed not a little to the success of the School.

The condition and prospects of this Mission are in every way encouraging. From the date of its organization, four years ago, it has been growing in number and efficiency. I took charge on the 1st of July, 1894. I have cause to be grateful for great kindness received from all the members of the Mission, and it is a "labor of love" to a Pastor to minister to a people who are always willing and ready to co-operate with him in his work for Christ and His Church.

We have a Guild of faithful women, and one of girls, who are very helpful in all the work. We are indebted to them for repairs and improvements which have made our little Chapel more churchly, and, of course, more attractive. The Sunday School has efficient officers and teachers. With God's blessing on it, the Mission bids fair to become a very prosperous one.

During the year, the Rev. A. W. Mann has assisted at two services, and officiated four times during my absence. He has also lectured three times on week day evenings. The work of the Mission has been extended at every opportunity. I have officiated thirty times in Kansas City, where I baptized six persons, and presented twelve for Confirmation. I have also officiated eight times at Topeka, Kan.; three times at Wichita, Kan.; one time at Lawrence, Kan.; three times at Omaha, Neb.; two times at Council Bluffs, Ia.; two times at Carthage, Mo.; two times at Jacksonville, Ill.; one time at Springfield, Ill.; one time at Independence, Mo.; and assisted at services at Indianapolis, Ind.; State Schools for the deaf at Olathe, Kan., Omaha, Neb., Council Bluffs, Ia., Jacksonville, Ill., and Indianapolis, Ind., were visited and addresses made to the pupils. I devoutly wish that my support was such as to enable me to give all my time and attention to Church work among the children of silence.

The Mission is particularly grateful to the good people of the Cathedral, Clergy and Officers, for the various privileges enjoyed in the Schuyler Memorial House. Miss Pearl Herdman, a young lady versed in the sign language, but not deaf, has rendered most acceptable service as Sunday School teacher and worker.

Faithfully yours,

JAS. H. CLOUD.

The Missionary who has served this Mission has not done so continuously, for he has been interrupted in various ways. First, by the owners of the house in which service has been held, wanting it most of the time for themselves, and by repairs going on for a considerable time, and then also by unavoidable absences of the Missionary. Several of the persons belonging to the congregation (including four communicants) have moved away and others are talking of going. Altogether the prospects of this Mission are not encouraging.

Since the Church was built and the Mission organized, by deaths and removals the Mission has been weakened and there is not much to encourage us. I can only give a Sunday afternoon service. We hope for better prospects, and shall keep at work and be witnesses unto the dear Lord and His Church.

This Mission has had no regular services until last January. They are now being held in the double parlors of a gentleman's private residence, this owing to the inability to procure necessary accommodations in any hall, school or Church building. Tracts and books are being circulated, and up to January I maintained monthly house to house pastoral visitation. We hope to have five or six confirmed when the Bishop visits us in June next. The services for the kind are well attended, and considerable interest is being manifested. Our little band of Church people are, although small in number, great in faith and hope and, I think, energy; and I certainly expect a growth in the near future, as all looks brighter than when I started in a year ago. With the Divine blessing we hope to advance.

At Webster Groves, Even Prayer and Address, 1. Addressed Ladies' Guild, Emmanuel Church, 1. Addressed Ladies' Guild, Church of the Redeemer, 1.

ST. LOUIS, May 1, 1895.

FROM REV. GEO. H. HUNT.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I have to report another year of enforced idleness, so far as the work of my ministry is concerned, for I have had but few and occasional opportunities for exercising any of its functions.

To stand thus aside and simply "mark time," while others all around are actively employed, is indeed hard, especially for one possessed of abundant vigor and capacity for work. Coming as a dispensation of God's providence, it is to be patiently endured; but as the undeserved neglect of the Church, it can only be protested against as an act of needless cruelty.

I have been able, on eleven Sundays, to conduct the services in different Parishes within the Diocese, and on four other Sundays in places within other Dioceses; so that I have held in all thirty-nine separate services, celebrating Holy Communion six times and baptizing one infant.

ST. LOUIS, May 1, 1895.

REPORT OF REV. A. W. MANN, GENERAL MISSIONARY TO DEAF MUTES.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

During the conventional year just closed, I held Sunday and week day services in St. Thomas' Mission, Christ Church Cathedral; Christ Church, Rolla, and the State school for deaf children at Fulton. An appointment for Mexico was postponed on account of the intended absence of the Rector at Convocation. The St. Louis services were held in the absence of the Minister in charge, the Rev. James H. Cloud, who goes once a month to Holy Spirit Deaf-Mute Mission, Kansas City.

The attendance at all services has been most encouraging. At the last service in Rolla, I met seven deaf-mutes, all but one from a distance; two came seventy-one miles from Lebanon in the Western Diocese; another came by horseback twenty miles, fording the Gasconade River on the way, a somewhat perilous undertaking. Two had not enjoyed the blessed privilege of public worship and instruction in their own language for fifteen years. The service gave them great comfort. Oh, that the Church had more laborers for this most interesting and fruitful work. The general Missionary, with an immense territory to go over, can give only occasional services to the larger centres. The time is coming when each Diocese must have its own Missionary to this scattered and isolated class of our population.

As the Rev. Mr. Cloud is now more closely related, pastorally, to St. Thomas' Mission than I am, a report of Baptisms, Confirmations and Holy Communions comes properly from him. I have only to report one baptism and four celebrations of the Holy Communion.

Outside of Missouri I officiated during the year at Kansas City, Chicago, Joliet, Grand Rapids, Detroit, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Columbus, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York and a number of smaller places. Total Baptisms, 20. Confirmations, 26. Marriages, 4.

In the latter part of last July, I attended a conference of English Church workers among the deaf. It was held at Blackburn, not far north of Liverpool; and was presided over by Bishop Cramer-Roberts, clerical and lay workers from London, Brighton, Birmingham, Manchester, Liverpool, Carlisle, Durham, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Belfast, Dublin, Swansea, and other places, were present. It was the first gathering of the kind in the old world. I gave a brief account of the work in the Middle Western United States. The Rev. Dr. Gallaudet was also present.

After the adjournment, I preached to deaf-mutes in St. Saviour's Church, Oxford street, London, and at Missions in Liverpool, Blackburn, Belfast, Cork and Dublin. On the continent my travels extended as far South as Rome and Venice. At Milan I visited a well known school for deaf children. I also visited schools in England and Ireland.

Shortly before sailing on the return voyage, I attended the last Irish Church Congress, and was accorded the opportunity of saying a few words in behalf of the ordination of deaf-mute men for this special work in Ireland. Dr. Gallaudet interpreted my sign address.
